

COMMON TRANSACTION FORMS

This is a list of some of the forms that may be a part of your home purchase. Your Realtor® will explain each one in detail should they become a part of your transaction.

- RE14 Buyer Representation Agreement used to hire a Realtor® to represent you
- Agency Disclosure Brochure is a consumer guide to understanding agency relationships in real estate transactions.
- RE21 Real Estate Purchase and Sale Agreement used to submit an offer on real estate
- RE25 Sellers Property Condition Disclosure Form required of all sellers to complete to their best of their knowledge
- Lead Based Paint Disclosure required to complete on any dwelling built prior to 1978. Agent will also provide a consumer pamphlet on lead-based paint.
- RE13 Counter offer used during the negotiation phase of a submitted offer
- RE10 Inspection Contingency Notice used during the inspection contingency phase of the transaction.
- RE11 Addendum used to change, correct or revise any portion of the purchase and sale agreement during the transaction
- RE20 Notice to Terminate Contract and Release of Earnest Money used should a party choose to terminate an offer